

LIVE UNITED™

Davis

Assault and Abuse Services of Stephenson County provided support, intervention, education, and counseling to a victim of sexual assault.

Sojourn House's treatment programs and counseling services helped five individuals overcome addictions.

NCAA Golden Meals delivered nutritious meals to 33 seniors.

Intensive work training was provided by Malcolm Eaton Enterprises to an individual with disabilities for him to be successful in seeking community employment.

Seven income-eligible households received free civil legal assistance from Prairie State Legal Services.

Regional Access and Mobilization Project (RAMP) provided advocacy and services for two individuals with disabilities so they could maintain independent living.

An at-risk boy gained a new friend when he was matched with a Big Brother, a program of FHN Family Counseling Center.

Neighborhood Housing Services of Freeport helped a family achieve their dream of owning a home.

Tyler's Justice Center for Children provided program coordination and advocacy for three children who were abused and non-offending family members.

Twenty-six boys learned various life skills and values through Boy Scouts - Blackhawk Area Council.

VOICES Domestic Violence Program provided support and advocacy to six victims of domestic violence.

United Way of Northwest Illinois, Inc.
serving Stephenson and Jo Daviess Counties